Our work with the Indiana State Police

Since 2008, a health and human service initiative by the Indiana Drug Education Association partners ACT OUT with the Indiana State Police. The State of Indiana requires each police officer to attend mandatory training on SIDS (sudden infant death syndrome), biohazards, human trafficking, mental illness, domestic violence, and blood-borne pathogens. These topics are included in ACT OUT's comprehensive list of offerings. Shows are held in police stations, community centers and local schools. By providing more than 40 shows annually, ACT OUT helps the Indiana State Police meet state mandates while the ensemble expands its social outreach, illuminates root problems and identifies solutions.

In 2016, our ACT OUT Ensemble performed 59 shows for 3,505 Police Officers in 23 different counties.

Indiana Performing Arts Initiative: Our New Summer Stock Theatre Program!

Jekyll & Hyde: The Musical at IPAI

Six Characters

June 2016 was the inauguration of our new professional summer stock theatre –the Indiana Performing Arts Initiative; collaborating with two iconic IUPUI arts groups –Hoosier Bard Productions and the IUPUI Music Academy –to present a unique training and performance opportunity for the Indianapolis community. This new program, featured the talents of performing arts students from four local high schools and eight colleges, as well as professional adult actors from the Indianapolis and surrounding communities.

The inaugural season included two highly successful productions that delved heavily into the theme of “reality vs. illusion”; Jekyll & Hyde: the Broadway Musical, and the absurdist play, Six Characters in Search of an Author.

Jekyll & Hyde was named one of the top 5 locally-produced shows in 2016 by Nuvo Newsweekly readers!

Critic's Quotes

“If this is the level of performance and type of thought-provoking production we can look forward to from this group, then it is a welcome addition to Indianapolis theatre.”

Christine Schaefer,
Greenfield Daily Reporter

“Heady stuff for a summer stock theatre ...brave and wonderfully staged. Terrific voices. They fit together like a symphonic choir.”

Herron High School: A Perfect Laboratory

Our Youth and the Arts (YATA) program partners Claude McNeal Productions with acclaimed downtown Indianapolis charter school, Herron High School.

In 2006, Claude McNeal Productions joined forces with Herron High School to run their Theatre Arts Program. CMP bring their many years of expertise in educational theatre programming for youth to this endeavor by teaching beginning, intermediate and advanced theatre courses throughout the school year, and in the supervision and mounting of Herron's four annual productions. HHS is the perfect "laboratory" for the innovative programs offered by Claude McNeal Productions, working with over 200 students in the theatre department.

Our 2016/2017 Theatre Productions at HHS so far have included 3 shows of William Shakespeare Superstar, a collection of some of the most famous Shakespeare soliloquies, songs and scenes in October, and Claude's original adaptation of the famous Charles Dickens classic A Christmas Carol, called A Tale of Scrooge: the Musical in December.
